HEIFER CASE SETTLED.

Strange Mistake Discovered in Writ of Replevin Results in Sudden Compromise.

A replevin suit instituted by Ward G. Holman of this city against Ariel Green of Eastford for a two year old heifer which, it is claimed, had strayed from Mr. Holman's farm in that town, and which the defendant refused to give up, came to a quick conclusion Thursday morning when Attorney William A. Kins, for the defendant, found a defect in the writ of replevin which, it is said, was caused by a change made by the officer or some one else after it left the hands of Attorney Torrey, who represented Mr. Holman.

A consultation of the parties followed the discovery of the mistake, and it was finally decided that the suit be withdrawn. Mr. Green paying $25, Mr. Holman the costs, and Mr. Green keeping the heifer. The suit was returnable before Justice James A. Shea.

JEWETT CITY

Friends Grieve For Death of Edward B. Bromley—Local Students at Banquets of Norwich Frats.

The death of Edward B. Bromley of Greenville on Dec. 28 was noted with special interest in Jewett City and Lisbon, where he was known in his younger days. He was born in Lisbon 59 years ago, the son of Charles J. and Sarah Thompson Bromley.

Thirty-one years ago in Myrtle he married Isabelle Barrows, and has lived in Greenville since that time. When he was a young man he joined the Methodist church in Jewett City, and later took a letter to the Methodist church in Greenville. For 25 years he was employed with the United States Forest Service. He was a man who led a blameless life and had not an enemy. He was very conscientious and industrious, and faithful to the letter. His strongest characteristic was his love for his home and kindred. The long period of illness which he endured only served to enlarge his love for his friends, for the remarkable patience with which he bore his sufferings. He is survived by his wife, one sister, Mrs. Anna Browning of Greenville, and three brothers, Calvin D. of New York, Arthur J. of Providence and John G. of Lisbon.
